NEW AND POPULAR MUSIC BOOKS.

PIANO-FORTE.

Brainard's New Method for the Piano-Forte.—By George W. Brainard. The latest and best method of instruction for the Piano-forte. It is thoroughly Progressive and Practical, full of copious notes and directions, and is destined to become the Standard Piano-forte Method. Teachers are especially requested to examine this new work. Price $3.00.

Winner's New Method for the Piano-Forte.—By Sep. Winner. A new and complete Easy Method, especially adapted for self-instruction, containing the Rudiments of Music, Pleasing Exercises, and a choice selection of the popular music of the day. Price 75 cents.

Bertini's Piano-Forte Method.—The standard method for the Piano-Forte. Notwithstanding so many new piano methods are constantly being published, many teachers use Bertini, and pronounce it the best and most thorough work of the kind ever written. Price complete, $3.00; abridged, $2.00.

Czerny's Exercises in Velocity.—Thirty etudes de la velocite, preceded by nine new Introductory Exercises, and concluded by a new study on octaves composed expressly for this edition. For the Piano-forte, by Charles Czerny, with notes by J. A. Hamilton. These valuable and well known studies are extensively used, and our edition is handsome, correct and complete. Price, bound in cloth, complete, $1.50; or in three numbers, 60 cents each.

Czerny's Etudes de Mecanisme.—Thirty new studies, composed expressly for young pianists, by Charles Czerny. These admirable studies were written to precede and serve as an introduction to the same author's exercises in Velocity. Price, bound in cloth, $2.50; in boards, $2.00; or in six numbers, 50 cents each.

Duvernoy's Ecole du Mechanism.—Fifteen studies for the Piano-forte, by J. B. Duvernoy. Attention is called to our elegant new edition of these standard studies so extensively used by teachers throughout the country. Price complete, bound in cloth, $1.50; or in three numbers, 50 cents each.

Bertini's Grand Exercises of the Scale—In single and double notes, selected from Bertini's Piano Method, and admirably adapted for teachers' use. Price 50 cents.

Plaidy's Technical Studies—For the Piano-forte, by Louis Plaidy. Translated from the latest corrected and improved German edition, used in the Leipzig and Munich Conservatories of Music. This is an invaluable work, and is used extensively by the leading piano teachers and music schools in this country. With American fingering. Price $2.00.

Burrowe's Piano-Forte Primer—(Brainards' New and Improved Edition), containing the Rudiments of Music and a complete Guide to Practice. This little work is of great value to teachers, and is extensively used. Price 30 cents.

Jousse's Catechism of Music.—Brainard's New Edition, by J. Jousse, to which is added Burrowe's Guide to Practice, and a condensed musical dictionary, revised and corrected by R. Denton. A valuable little work for teachers, and in general use. Price in paper, 25 cents; boards, 30 cents.

REED AND PIPE ORGAN.

Kimball's New Method for the Reed Organ.—By Horace E. Kimball. The most complete, thorough, progressive and practical book of the kind ever published. This New Method is far superior to any other Reed Organ instructor. But one thing is taught at a time, and full explanations and directions are given. The work is carefully fingered throughout, and strictly progressive, leading the student by easy stages up to the study and appreciation of the best organ music. It contains 168 large pages, is printed on fine white paper, and substantially bound in boards. Price $2.50.

Kimball's Organ Voluntaries.—For Pipe or Reed Organ. By Horace E. Kimball. This Collection of beautiful music, arranged expressly for Pipe or Cabinet Organs, from the best composers, will be found superior to any work of the kind heretofore published. It contains just such music as is needed for Church or Parlor use, of moderate difficulty, and should be in the hands of every organist. Price $2.

Winner's New Method for Reed Organ.—By Sep. Winner. New easy method for Reed Organ, containing the Rudiments of Music, complete elementary instruction, and a large amount of new and popular music. Price 75 cents.
